

... and the day had to come ... We strictly respected all the decisions and measures that were being taken during this difficult COVID-19 period ... and we know that we are now better prepared than ever to guarantee the greatest safety to all of Our Customers who decide to visit us starting today.

At check-in, we will take the precaution of measuring the temperature of all our customers. We will also have some more forms of screening in case of doubt ... and we also have quick tests of COVID-19 if it proves necessary ...

The use of visors, masks, gloves, the use of disinfectants most suitable for this type of situation, as well as available Alcohol-Gel for our Clients. We will have all the remote controls of our televisions in the rooms protected by a protective cover, and changed whenever a new customer enters, in order to avoid contact with an object that is normally so unhygienic.

We will also have at your disposal for those who want to purchase, reusable (washable) masks at cost (€ 1.50).

Breakfast will no longer be served in the manner it has always been served, Buffet, from now on being served by one of our employees, duly protected, and according to the guests request from a menu of suggestions that will be delivered on arrival to the breakfast room.

Naturally, we will always be available for more suggestions that are relevant to this time that we are going through, no one is born taught, and as time goes by each day will surely bring us more teachings on the best way to deal with the times that we currently live in.

In view of these measures that we took, we were immediately granted the Clean & Safe guarantee seal, given by Turismo de Portugal.

It is good to know that we will be able to have you back, and that you will be able to enjoy this little Paradise again.
